Global Trade Names ABF LogisticsSM in America's Leading 3PL Report

- ABF Logistics named to magazine's "15 to Watch" list

FORT SMITH, Arkansas, August 18, 2015 — ABF LogisticsSM, an ArcBest company (Nasdaq: ARCB), was recently recognized for the first time in the August/September edition of Global Trade magazine, within its America's Leading 3PL Report. The report features companies that excel in areas of versatility, innovation, green initiatives, technology and other specialized services. ABF Logistics tops the "15 to Watch" list.

"We've seen some exciting changes in the past two years since ABF Logistics was formed as an ArcBest company," said ABF Logistics President Jim Ingram. "We continually look for new ways to improve for the benefit of our customers."

ABF Logistics provides third-party logistics services including truckload brokerage, intermodal and ocean transport, warehousing and household moving. The company provides complete supply chain solutions and an exceptional experience that customers seek through a single point of contact.

"When compiling America's Leading 3PLs, we try to start by asking ourselves which companies are best suited to help our readers," said Patrick Dooley, publisher of Global Trade magazine. "We like that ABF Logistics is in the same family as ABF Freight, which is well situated to domestic logistics — and under the same ArcBest umbrella that can also be a big boost to supply chain operations."

ABF Logistics is a sister company to ABF Freight, one of the most trusted and recognized brands in the LTL industry.

"Going above and beyond to solve complex supply chain needs continues to resonate with customers who increasingly value superior service from ABF Logistics and the other ArcBest companies," stated ArcBest President and CEO Judy R. McReynolds.

The report of leading 3PL's was released Aug. 1 and can be found on Global Trade's website <http://www.globaltrademag.com/>.
